

Día de los Muertos

Día de los Muertos is a holiday celebrated throughout Mexico on November 1st and 2nd. On this day, families and friends gather to remember their loved ones. Part of the celebration may include parades, celebrations and building an altar.

Pan de muerto is a special bread that is made during this time of year and is placed on an altar as an offering.	Papel Picado is often used to decorate for holidays and special celebrations in Mexico.

Sugar skulls are hand made decorations used during día de muertos.	Candles are placed on altars and are lit in memory of those who have passed away.

Marigolds are traditionally used during día de muertos celebrations. They are known for their bright orange color and strong aroma.	An altar is like a shrine and is dedicated to someone who has passed away. They might include photos, food, and special decorations.